International Dental Congress, 1914.

The Sixth International Dental Congress will be held in London from August 3rd to 8th, 1914, at the invitation of the British Dental Association.

His Majesty King George V. has graciously consented to be the Patron of the Congress, which will take place at the University of London and at the Imperial College of Science and Technology, South Kensington.

The President of the Congress will be Mr. J. Howard Mummery, and the joint General Secretaries are Mr. Norman G. Bennett and Mr. H. R. F. Brooks. Mr. H. Baldwin is Hon. Treasurer.

A Committee of Organization under the Presidency of Mr. W. B. Paterson (President of the International Dental Federation), with Mr. F. J. Pearce as Hon. Secretary, has been busily engaged for some time in making the preliminary arrangements.

Previous Congresses have taken place in Paris, 1889; Chicago, 1893; Paris, 1900; St. Louis, 1904; and on the last occasion at Berlin, in the Reichstag, in 1909, when the German Emperor took a personal interest in the meeting, delegates attended from twenty different countries, and the Governments of many of them were officially represented.

Invitations are being issued to Dental Organizations throughout the world, and it is hoped thus to secure the co-operation of leading specialists and representative authorities in all branches of dental surgery.

The Rules of the International Dental Congress provide that all ethical practitioners of dentistry possessing the qualification of the country in which they received their professional education, or of the country in which they practise, are eligible for membership.

The Subscription for members of the Congress will be 30s. (38 francs; 31 marks; 7½ dollars), and for members of their families accompanying them 15s. (19 francs; 15½ marks; 314 dollars).

The Offices of the Congress are:—

19, Hanover Square,
London, W.,

to which address all communications should be sent.

Preliminary Press Notice.

With the Compliments of the General Secretaries.
