

Preliminary Programme.

EUROPEAN ORTHODONTIA SOCIETY.

Seventh Annual Meeting.

Paris.

Tuesday, July 28th.

Wednesday, July 29th.

Clinics: Saturday, August 1st.

- R. Ottolengui, New York. "The Question of Diagnosing Class III cases".
- A. Chiavaro, Rome. "Notes upon the correction of Temporary Teeth in Class III".
- W. Zielinsky, Berlin. "Treatment of some cases of malocclusion by applying the new but modified Angle-principle."
- E. Santley Butler, New York. "Description of the Technique of treatment of a case Class I with the new Angle-Appliance".
- A. H. Ketcham, Denver. "Report of a Class II Second Division Case, with the new Angle - Appliance".

- J. Choquet, Paris. "Description of the sinuosity of the compensating curve in the human denture".
- Calvin S. Case, Chicago. "Bodily Movement of Teeth".
- Luis Subirana, Madrid. (Clinic). "Nouvelles orientations dans la therapeutique des mal-occlusions — vers la correction automatique".
- V. H. Jackson, New York. (Clinic). "Orthodontia and Orthopedia of the face", with special reference to the author's method of moving the teeth.
- H. A. Pullen, Buffalo. "Advantages of the "Fixed" vs. "Removable" Appliance".
- H. Hecht, Berlin. "Result of treatment on a case of "openbite" (Class II, Division I, subdivision case) through the "headgear" of Lind".

Letters should be addressed to R. A n e m a , 172 Boulevard Haussmann.
